STUDENT LEADERSHIP SUMMIT

The summit is a unique opportunity for student leaders to hear from a wide range of presentations from individuals and groups who have with one-of-a-kind stories to share about how they achieved success.

Presenters will include: Congressman Bucshon, Former Governor Mitch Daniels, and a panel of currently enrolled college students.

Students will also build leadership skills with interactive activities.

Schools may nominate any number of students from grades 9 through 12 based on any criteria you deem appropriate.
