

2016 Congressional Art Competition

Hosted by
Congressman Larry Bucshon, MD

2016 Theme:

“Celebrating Indiana”

This competition allows each Congressional District to submit one piece of artwork for display in the U.S. Capitol for the duration of one year.

Visitors from all over the world will be able to view artwork from high school artists from around the country.

- Open to all currently enrolled high school students within Indiana’s 8th Congressional District
- Entries must be submitted by Friday, April 8, 2016 to our Evansville or Terre Haute district offices. See website for additional submission details.
- Submissions will be displayed in Evansville, IN at the Main Street Gallery of the Arts Council of Southwestern Indiana
- Student with the winning art piece will receive two free roundtrip tickets from Southwest Airlines to Washington, D.C., tours of the Capitol and the White House and an invitation to the Congressional awards ceremony.
- Winning art will be displayed at the Capitol Building in Washington, D.C. for a period of one year. Second and third place winners will have the opportunity to have their art displayed in Evansville and Terre Haute district offices for a period of 90 days.

Visit

<http://bucshon.house.gov/art-competition> for the 2016 guidelines
and more information.